Purpose

To establish the policy of the San Diego Children and Families Commission (“Commission”) for protesting the award of Grants.

Background

The Commission funds programs and services for children age zero to five, and their families to ensure that every child in San Diego County will enter school physically, mentally, socially and developmentally ready to learn. The Commission’s mandate is set forth in Health and Safety Code sections 130100 et seq., San Diego County Administrative Code, Article IIIP, sections 84.100 et seq., and the Commission’s Strategic Plan.

The Commission’s funding decisions are guided, in part, by its Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan is a multiyear plan that is reviewed annually. The Strategic Plan sets forth the Commission’s goals and general areas in which it will provide funding. One mechanism for funding programs is through the Request for Grant Application (RFGA) process. Specific procedures are utilized during the RFGA process and certain standards of behavior are expected of Commission officials and source selection committee members. It is the intent of the Commission to ensure that these procedures and standards of behavior are adhered to at all times.

Policy

RFGA applicants not selected for award of a grant may protest their non-selection for award of funding. Any applicant so desiring to protest their non-selection shall follow the procedures as specified in the Policy.

5. Summary Dismissal of Protest: The Executive Director may summarily dismiss a protest, or specific protest allegations, at any time that the Executive Director determines that the protest raises issues beyond the scope of this protest procedure as set forth above in Section B, Subsection 2, "Grounds for Protest," is untimely, frivolous or obviously without merit, is not submitted in the required form of protest, as set forth above in Section B, Subsection 4, "Required Form of Protest," or is submitted by a non-applicant. In such cases, a notice of summary dismissal shall be furnished to Interested Parties.

If the Executive Director wishes to have additional information submitted by the Protestor that was not included in the protest or documentation from other Interested Parties, the Executive Director shall make a request specifying the information sought and time for submittal. Submissions of additional information not specifically requested by the Executive Director shall not be considered. The Executive Director shall not conduct a "hearing" nor consider oral testimony. The Executive Director shall issue a written decision containing the basis of the decision within thirty (30) days after a protest has been filed with the Executive Director; however, the time for decision may be extended by the Executive Director. A copy of the decision shall be furnished to Interested Parties. The decision shall be final with no provision for reconsideration.
